CEN REVIEW COURSE

This is the ideal course for the RN who is preparing to take the BCEN Certified Emergency Nurse (CEN) exam. This two-day course is designed to review the major/core topics covered by the 2016 version of the BCEN CEN exam. This course will discuss the principles of emergency nursing and management of conditions commonly seen in the Emergency setting. The focus of this course is ONLY CEN material; a dedicated two-days worth of CEN content. Giving you the most "BANG for your CEN Prep Buck!"

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course the participant should be able to:

(1) Recognize signs and symptoms that may indicate a specific emergency condition.
(2) Describe appropriate nursing interventions and medical treatments for selected emergency conditions
(3) List appropriate pharmacological treatments for specific emergency conditions
